Notes from the boss.....

Tuesday night's postponement of the Tranmere game gave us the opportunity to get one or two injury problems cleared up but I can tell you the decision to call the game off left me totally frustrated and disappointed.

After the result against Hartlepool last Saturday I desperately wanted to get a game in as quickly as possible so that we could get the poor performance out of our system. I preferred to see the players back in the action straight away rather than having to hang around and dwell on the things that went wrong last weekend.

Having the game postponed seemed pretty senseless to me. These days you can't get games called off if you have a flu epidemic or an unusual number of injuries. But there we were, building up to a game when suddenly a club chooses not to pay a police bill and the match is cancelled. . . just like that!

Not a very pleasant state of affairs but one which emphasises to us all the value of the good ground and excellent facilities we have here at Burnden Park.

Getting back to today's game it goes without saying that we need to get back into a better run of results after slipping up over the last couple of weeks. That will not be easy against a Wolves team which everyone expects to provide the toughest opposition in the division.

They only just missed out on promotion last season and from what we have seen of them already this time around I can say with some justification that they will be one of the front-runners.

I ought to tell you of one matter which has come up, really out of necessity, since the Hartlepool game. I have been concerned about discipline on the field and in view of the large number of bookings we have been picking up lately, I have brought in an internal disciplinary code. Any player who is booked for dissent or for silly, avoidable reasons will be fined.

I am not prepared to get to the crucial stages of the season and have players missing through suspension just because they opened their mouths out of turn.

The last seven years have been the most traumatic in Wolves' long history. During that time the club has experienced two receiverships and plummeted from Division One to Division Four. Wolves nearly folded on two occasions – the first in 1982 when a receiver was appointed to run the club affairs. A consortium of businessmen from Manchester bought the club and appointed Derek Dougan manager. Wolves were promoted back to Division One. Alas, it was not to last and over the next three seasons, once-proud Wolves dropped to the Third. The final humiliation came at the end of the 1985–86 season when the club dropped into Division Four for the first time in its history. During this time, Dougan resigned, managers came and went and in May 1986 a receiver was appointed for the second time to run the club. Again it seemed the famous Molineux club would go out of existence until the local council stepped in and bought the ground and leased it back to a consortium of local businessmen. Under the chairmanship of former Walsall and Birmingham City director, Richard Homden, together with colleague Jack Harris, the club appears to be prospering again. The arrival of ex-Aston Villa manager, Graham Turner, has seen Wolves build a squad to climb back up the Fourth Division and narrowly miss promotion in the play-off final with Aldershot.

Off the field, the future prospects also look good. The local council intends to build a sports complex near the ground. Within the club there is a strong belief the black and gold colours of Wolves will soon be a force to be reckoned with once again.

MATCH REPORT

AROUND THE LEAGUES

QPR head the pack in division 1 having now picked up 22 points from 9 games played.

An aptly timed penalty by Brian McClair pegged Spurs at Old Trafford. Chelsea moved into second spot temporarily with a 3-0 victory at Watford and this may have prompted Dave Bassett's interest in unsettled Mark Hughes. Liverpool's mid-week victory over Derby in front of 43,400 spectators hoisted them above Chelsea.

Blackburn, after putting on an impressive performance against Liverpool in the Littlewoods Cup came down with a thump to Middlesbrough. The heroics of Manchester City's on loan signing, Bobby Mimms from Everton couldn't help City going down at Leeds. In mid-week City slipped further at Hull 1-3.

Oldham manager Joe Royle will have been relieved to see his lads get back to winning ways at the expense of Barnsley, but three days later had to be content to share the spoils with Millwall.

A Gerry McElhinney own goal supplied Birmingham with a satisfactory away point at Plymouth.

In the Blackpool - Preston Lancashire 'hot-pot' the Pool ran out 3-0 winners, and Blackpool continued their winning run at York in mid-week. Wigan suffered their first home league defeat at the hands of Bury and this opened up the way for Phil Neals first club, Northampton to lead the pack. Wigan then chalked up their second defeat in four days going down 3-2 at Aldershot.

In division 4 Rochdale were victorious against neighbours Burnley where George Oghani scored for the visitors. Then in mid-week Rochdale came back empty handed from today's visitors Wolves and Burnley had to settle for one point in a scoreless draw at home to Crewe. Asa Hartford's Stockport lost by the odd goal in three at Wrexham, then put up the shutters last Tuesday at Scunthorpe, drawing 0-0. Exeter took over the leadership in division 4 but this was shortlived after Scarborough's mid-week victory at Torquay.

At the moment, as teams jostle for league positions situations are changing overnight. In division 4 for instance there has already been four teams in pole positions with only 10 games played.

GUEST SPOT

DAVE HIGSON

This weeks article would be probably be more aptly entitled 'Guess Spot' for Dave Higson isn't perhaps as well known as our previous subjects.

He is a fitter at British Aerospace during the week but comes down to earth every Saturday to take up a role as commentator to the Wanderers match videos — but some of his commentaries have had listeners up in the air!

It all came about some three years ago when it was decided to produce videos of home and away games and David was handed the microphone.

He said, "The only time I had done anything like that before was reading the news in my schooldays."

The first game covered was an 'away' game at Swansea and he has had an unbroken spell of three seasons since then. He has been on every Football League ground following the Wanderers with the exception of only three or four.

David explained, "I was going down well until I went to Wigan and when their followers watched the video in their Supporters Club, they objected to my commentary, all because I called them pie-eaters. They said I was a bit biased, but I don't think that I am."

He has some interesting stories to tell, like on one occasion when he worked from the match day magazine but overlooked the team changes. "I had it all to cock" he said, "so now I try to get hold of the same team sheet as the referee."

David has also sat alongside the professionals on his travels. He recalled a game at Swindon, "I was sat alongside Gerald Sinstadt and he kept coming to me for information on the players. Then there was the televised F.A. Cup game at Coventry — the B.B.C. came over to ask me about Phil Neal and the Bolton team," he said proudly.

Regular viewers to our match video nights in the Executive Club can hear Dave in action and you can be assured of an entertaining evening.

His biggest occasion to date was when he carried out a commentary on our Freight Rover Final against Bristol City at Wembley. Caught up in the excitement he took up his seat in the gantry all dressed up in Bolton colours — amongst all the Bristol fans. He said, "I saw John Motson dressed up in Oxford's colours the previous week for the League Cup, so I did the same."

Besides his commentating Dave acts as steward on the coaches to away games and he's been in tight situations with that as well. He explained, "I once left somebody in London for persistently using bad language and there was a letter in the paper the following week. I got reprimanded but when the Club got the true tale they backed me. I am proud to be part of Wanderers."

HE PLAYED ALONGSIDE TOMMY LAWTON!

Every picture tells a story - and our roving cameraman "snapped" this shot for our Screen 'Face in the Crowd' featured in last weeks programme.

It turned out to be Mr Leonard Garside, aged 71 and a life long Wanderers fan.

Now living in Avondale Road, Farnworth Mr Garside informed us that he was watching the Wanderers before the Burnden disaster, an on that horrible day he was standing on the Bolton end embankment.

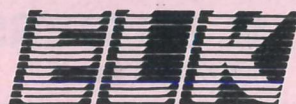

Nowadays he only attends home games and he stands in the same place every match. When asked just what he was saying to the youngster stood alongside, he said, "I might have been telling him it should have been a foul, or something. I don't know who he is."

Looking back over the years Mr Garside was proud to say, "I played in the same team as Tommy Lawton at school - Tonge Moor Council, and Tom played number seven then. That was before the days of Nat Lofthouse."

When asked how he spotted himself in the programme Mr Garside explained, "I was buying a paper at the newsagents near Burnden, when a bloke - a stranger - said I was in the programme. When I saw my hearing aid I thought that's correct, that's my identification."

When presented with his Football League Centenary Yearbook Mr Garside said, "I'll find this interesting and I'll show it to the family." - then off he went back into the crowd.

FOOTNOTE: The school that Mr Garside attended produced two England centre forwards in Nat and Tommy and even today the school forms play for the Nat Lofthouse Trophy.

FLASH BACK

5 YEARS AGO. 28th September, 1982. Oldham Athletic twice came from behind to defeat the Wanderers 3-2 at Burnden. Roger Palmer cancelled out Tony Henry's opener but the Wanderers nosed in front again, courtesy of Ian Moores, who scored his first League goal for the club. The lead was short-lived as John Ryan equalised for Oldham before Palmer grabbed the winner in the 54th minute.

2nd October, 1982. A run of five consecutive League defeats came to an end when Crystal Palace were defeated 1-0 at Burnden. Transfer listed David Hoggan scored the all important goal in the 12th minute.

5th October, 1982. Hoggan was again on target for Bolton but couldn't prevent first division leaders Watford winning 2-1 at Burnden in the first leg of a second round Milk Cup tie.

10 YEARS AGO. 4th October, 1977.

Bolton returned to the top of division two with a 4-2 home win over Blackburn Rovers. A couple of goals from Roy Greaves and one from Neil Whatmore gave the Wanderers a comfortable lead after only half an hour. Rovers fought back with goals from former Wanderer, Gordon Taylor and John Waddington, but a late Sam Allardyce goal killed off their hopes.

8th October, 1977. The Wanderers ended Brighton's 11 month unbeaten home record with a 2-1 victory. Peter Reid fired the Wanderers in front in the 19th minute only for Ian Mellor to put the home side level a quarter of an hour later. The winner came from the penalty spot, Roy Greaves converting, after Ken Tiler had handled.

15 YEARS AGO. A 25 yard blast from Alan Waldron in the dying seconds found the net to give the Wanderers victory over Chesterfield at Burnden. Waldron himself almost missed the game, having been ill for most of the day, only being passed fit just before the kick off.

30th September, 1972. It took a desperate rearguard action from the Wanderers to hold Halifax to a 1-1 draw at The Shay. Paul Jones fired Bolton in front in a first half dominated by the visitors only for Town to come back thanks to a Lammie Robertson goal.

DONCASTER ROVERS RES. 5 BOLTON WANDERERS RES. 5

21st September, 1987.

The reserves kept up their impressive start to the season with a ten goal thriller at Belle Vue.

Bolton took control of the game early on when Mark Winstanley volleyed home his first goal of the season with under two minutes on the clock. The home side gradually fought their way back and equalised in the 29th minute through Colin Russell.

Ian Stevens had the opportunity to reinstate the Wanderers lead when he was put clear by Steve Elliott but Lamont in the Rovers goal saved well at his feet. At the other end, Ryan Price was also in good form, making a spectacular double save from Steve Burke.

It was Burke who put Doncaster in front after only four minutes of the second period but Bolton stormed back and equalised within two minutes through Ian Stevens. Stevens restored Bolton's lead, with his fifth goal in as many games, by racing onto a Steve Elliott header and chipping the keeper.

Nick Brookman grabbed the Wanderers fourth in the 61st minute, a fine individual effort, by beating two defenders and calmly curling the ball into the corner of the net from an acute angle.

Two goals in as many minutes from Rovers equalised the scores. Mike Rankine and Colin Russell capitalising on Bolton's lack of concentration.

The last half an hour saw the Wanderers create enough clear cut chances to have gone into double figures. The main culprit was Ian Stevens who was twice denied his hat trick by the Doncaster keeper and then struck the post with his best chance of the game. As it was Elliott netted the Wanderers fifth goal in the 74th minute only for Rovers to again bounce back with an equaliser from Sean Joyce four minutes later.

October already, nearly a quarter of the season gone and so far things have not gone all our way, but with a bit more luck we could have had better results.

Today's game provides us with a stiff task against old rivals Wolves, whose season has been one of inconsistency.

Graham Turner has done a fine job turning the fortunes of the once great Club and gates have virtually doubled to around 7,000.

There have been times when this fixture would have attracted 30 odd thousand but unfortunately today no away supporters are present. Hooligans are a problem at every Club, large or small.

Here at Bolton large amounts of money has been spent on segregation - even the cells under the Stand - and of course there's the close circuit cameras inside the Ground.

On a lighter note, next Monday sees the return of Tommy Docherty to Burnden, just for the night - he's Guest Speaker at a Sportsmans Dinner.

Now in the hot seat at Altrincham, Tom's in his 14th managerial job, they reckon he's had more clubs than Jack Nicklaus.

The Doc's first Managers job was at Chelsea in '62 and since then he's been as near as Rotherham and Manchester United and as far as Portugal and Australia and also squeezed in the Scotland job.

Controversial maybe but after 25 years - he's still not had enough and little Altrincham should benefit from his experience. They started off well enough having beaten Runcorn after only 24 hours in control.

Burnden Park News

RARING TO GO!

The best news to come from Burnden Park this week is that Neil Whatmore is fully fit again and he's raring to go.

The past five months must have been frustrating for Neil, to say the least.

He damaged a cartilage on August 1st and that meant another operation - the second in five months on the same knee at Highbank Nursing Home, Walshaw.

Four weeks after the operation Neil was back in training and he's gradually built up to declare himself fully fit. "I've been through injuries before and it's terrible sat in the stand but the fact your'e getting fit keeps you going. I just need a few Reserve games now and then hopefully push for a place."

He pointed out that competition for places is a good thing because it keeps everyone on their toes.

That news will surely please the Manager.

BILL'S NEW LEAGUES UNDERWAY!

The Senior 7-a-side Football League organised by Mr Bill Longdon, manager of Burnden Sports Centre has now got underway.

Bill has formed two leagues, each will comprise of ten teams and named the Roy Greaves League and General Havelock League.

Games commence at 6.30 pm every Thursday evening and the fixtures will not be completed until February.

The teams entered the new Leagues in response to a Bolton Evening news article.

NOTEBOOK

GOLDEN OLDIES

Today we reproduce a page from the programme for the Wolves v Bolton first division game played in November 1958. These were much better days for the Leagues two Wanderers, Wolves were in second spot, whilst Bolton were a point behind in fourth position.

Wolves were looking for revenge after Bolton had ousted them from the previous seasons FA Cup and beaten them in the Charity Shield the previous month. On the other hand Bolton had only won once at Molineux since the war and had been trounced 6-1 the previous season.

Deeley opened the scoring for the home side after twelve minutes when he capitalised on a poor back pass from Higgins. Bolton struck back with Dennis Stevens equalising seven minutes later and Nat Lofthouse scoring, what turned out to be the winner, in the 27th minute. The result lifted Bolton into second place, two points behind Arsenal, but with a game in hand.

REFLECTIONS

Fellow founder League members Wolverhampton Wanderers, today become the second League side to have faced Bolton in all four divisions, Cardiff being the first six weeks ago.

Only fourteen of the previous League encounters between the clubs have been outside the first division, two of these, the most recent were played during 1985/86 in the third division.

Bolton completed the double, firstly by winning 4-1 at Burnden in September 1985, and then the following February by a 2-0 margin at Molineux.

The game at Burnden was scoreless after the first half, but a couple of Steve Thompson goals, in the space of three minutes, put Bolton into the driving seat. The first was a penalty in the 48th minute, George Oghani having been fouled by Nick Clarke, the second being a twenty yard shot. David Cross grabbed the other two Bolton goals, the first a simple tap in, in the 65th minute and the second a comfortable header a minute from time. Wolves only reply came three minutes from the final whistle when John Morrissey shot home.

Simon Rudge and George Oghani were the Bolton scorers in the win at Molineux, before a crowd of 3110, at the time, the lowest in Wolves League history.

KNOCK, KNOCK – WHO'S THERE?

It's Bolton Wanderers representatives who have been steadily canvassing door to door around the area. We've been recruiting new members to CASHLINE and most people have been very co-operative.

Of course there is always room for improvement and if any reader wishes to take part in a canvass team, contact Terry Holland or Graham Eddleston on the club number, 389200.

Don't be put off if you have never done anything like it before because we have professional staff who are willing to show you.

Oddly enough all canvass team members to date are male, and that's rather surprising.

Where's all you women, we ask. It's just a few hours a night and its enjoyable.

SPOTLIGHT

Trevor James Morgan

Trevor was Phil Neal's first close season signing from Bristol City. At 6' 2" and 13 stone 10 lbs (sometimes) he makes an ideal target man. He is 31 years old and born at Forest Gate, London and there's an odd significance with Trevor's introduction to League Football. It was whilst he was playing non-league with Leytonstone and Ilford, at the age of 23, that Bournemouth Manager David Webb watched the game with interest in signing another player, but Trevor scored two goals that day and was signed up instead.

He is married to Jacqueline and has a daughter, Lauren aged 6 and son James, aged 4. Trevor is much travelled having served Bournemouth (twice), Mansfield, Bristol Rovers, Exeter, Bristol City (twice) and one season with St. George in Sydney, Australia. The latter came about on recommendation from an ex-Bournemouth player. When the season finishes here, the season starts over there and it helped keep Trevor fully fit.

Besides David Webb, Terry Cooper and Ronald McDonald are most influential on his career — the latter because Trevor enjoys the occasional burger.

He likes winning and eating out but dislikes losing and smoking. For musical tastes he likes U2 and Level 42 and favourite T.V. programmes are Only Fools and Horses and most sports programmes.

His player for the future is a youngster called Nigel Hawkins at Bristol City. To help Bolton out of Division 4 is Trevor's ambition and for his favourite away ground he says "anywhere we win."

TODAY'S REFEREE

Keith Hackett (Sheffield)

In Keith Hackett we have one of the Leagues most experienced ref's. He commenced refereeing in 1960 and progressed to League status via the Northern Premier League. It might be said that he has made more appearances at Wembley than the band, having officiated the 1981 F.A. Cup Final, the 1983 Charity Shield and the 1986 Milk Cup Final. He is also recognised on the F.I.F.A. panel. Away from football Keith is a Sales & Marketing Director and his hobbies are walking, golf and gardening.
